REPORTS

- a) Engineer – Thank you for the reappointment. Will call Arawak & discuss the parking lot bid as well as Old Church Road. We should be going out to re-bid the parking lot by the end of the month.
- b) Solicitor – Thank you for the reappointment. Working on the Comcast agreement and we will have to add it to the agenda in March.
- c) CFO – We will have to discuss the 2023 Budget. Do we need a public hearing because I didn't like being attacked or I can meet separately with Committee?

Mayor James – We can meet separately, but we will have a meeting to discuss the budget with the public.

- d) Township Clerk – Happy New Year! Day to Day operations; Contacted Comcast for cable wire hanging low (2 times); handled Insurance Cards to the Fire Companies & Ambulance; helped various residents with their questions.
- e) Code Enforcement – Nothing to report
- f) OEM – Written Report –m Has training this month; also contacted the County with regards to the Flood Signs at Crowleys Landing that were not working properly
- g) Township Committee –
Committeeman Gadd – The Senior Luncheon was a great success. Congratulations to Karen for 10 years with the Township.

Deputy Mayor Seybold – Public Works – November/December 2022 – Nor'easter 11/20/2022, checking road for limbs & trees; leaf blowing on Lance Run Road, Smith Lane & Jenkins; gravel Bell Lane & Lance Run Road; picked up road side trash; made multiple trips to Clegg's Garage' put on salt spinner on truck & loosened salt pile.

Thank you Karen for setting up the luncheon. I got a quote for the repair of the ram $850.00 & will schedule it soon. Recycling Calendar is on the website for the full year. Signs at the Lower Bank Landing were down, I contacted David and he got hold of the County. Godfreys Bridge Road poles are Verizon's and not the electric company and we are working on that. The 2 mile stretch (Atlantic County) needs to be improved. We should contact Atlantic County; the lights were flashing at Crowleys Landing. Happy New Year.

Mayor James – Working on contract with Comcast; I did go up to Pinelands to get the cell tower moving and contacted the company who is putting up the tower. Checked Godfreys Bridge Road, ef we could straighten it out, it would help. Thank you Lisa and Karen for the Luncheon.

PUBLIC COMMENT (Please state your name & address for the record)

Mayor James opened the meeting for Public Comments.

Jeanette DePiero – River Road, Green Bank – Happy New Year and thank you for everything that you have done. What is the status of the Senior Center?

Committeeman Gadd – When the weather breaks, we should be able to start.

Ben Keating – Turtle Creek Road – The graffiti is still on the road.

Deputy Mayor Seybold – We are working with the weather, we haven't forgotten about it.
